No. 1357.

We have already given our Readers a Translation of Mr. Walpole's Memorial to the States General, the following is a Translation of the Letter from the States General to the King of Great Britain.

SIR,

WE see by your Majesty's Letter, of the 12th Day of June last, that you have been pleased to recall from hence Mr. Herault Walpole, one of your Privy Council, and your Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to us, who in delivering your Majesty's Letter took Leave of us at the same time, and gave us fresh Assurances on that Occasion, of your Majesty's most valuable Affection and good Will to our Republick. This he did in such strong and pathetic Terms, founded on such solid Principles, that in this Respect he hath left us nothing further to desire. We have received these repeated Assurances with all the Gratitude imaginable, and as he has fully convinced us of your Majesty's favourable Sentiments towards our State, we flatter ourselves, that at his Return he will have the same Success, in representing to You the High Esteem and Respect with which we revere your Majesty, as well as the Part which we sincerely take in the Interests of your Majesty's Kingdoms, and the Prosperity of your Government. We have so perfect a Confidence in the Integrity of the said Ambassador, whose Person and Ministry here hath been most agreeable to us, that we willingly refer ourselves to the Report which he shall make to your Majesty on this Head. We regret his leaving us, because we looked upon it as an Advantage to have with us such a Minister as he is, endowed with extraordinary Talents, of a vast Capacity, and a consummate Prudence, confirm'd by long Experience. He has given Proof of them in every thing that he has had to negotiate here, as well as of his noble Zeal for your Majesty's Service, and of his laudable Earnestness to cultivate and cement the happy Union between your Majesty and our Republick, and the good Understanding between the two Nations; two Points which we ever will be the Object of our Wishes and Desires. He is perfectly acquainted with the Sincerity of our Sentiments, and the good Will which he has always shewn us, will not suffer him to conceal them from your Majesty. We beseech your Majesty, to believe him on that Subject, and to continue to us that Friendship and Benevolence with which you have hitherto honour'd us, and which we look upon as a firm Support of the Security and Preservation of our Republick. For the rest, we pray God,

SIR,

To crown your Majesty's Reign with Felicity, and bless your Royal Person with Health, and a very long Life.

At the Hague, the 13th of October, 1739.

Your Majesty's

Most humble Servants

The STATES GENERAL
Of the United Provinces of the Netherlands
E. TAMMINGA.

IRELAND.

Dublin, Oct. 11. On Tuesday the 9th Instant, the Parliament having met according to the Proclamation, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Ceremony, his Grace sent for the Commons, and made a Speech to both Houses, who unanimously resolved upon humble and dutiful Addresses to his Majesty, which were this Day presented to his

His Grace William, Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland, his Speech to both Houses of Parliament, at Dublin; on Tuesday the Ninth Day of October, 1739.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with the greatest Satisfaction that I obey his Majesty's Commands to meet you again in Parliament; and, from the Experience I have had of your Zeal for the Publick Service, I persuade myself, that his Majesty's gracious Intentions of promoting the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom will be effectually answered.

The present Situation of Affairs in Europe, hath made it necessary for his Majesty strongly to exert his Power for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce abroad. It will highly become us to shew our utmost Zeal at home for the Support of his Majesty's Government, and the Protestant Religion, against such as shall dare to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity we so happily enjoy.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare the several Accounts and Estimates to be laid before you. I have nothing in Command from his Majesty to ask, but the usual Supplies; and you may be assured, that they shall be frugally managed, and applied to the Support of the Establishment, and the Defence and Security of this Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I think myself obliged to take Notice to you, that an Act has been passed in Great Britain, for taking off (after the First Day of May 1740) the Subsidies payable to his Majesty upon Woollen or Bay Yarn imported into Great Britain from this Kingdom, and for giving Liberty of carrying Wooll and Woollen Yarn and Manufactures into certain Ports of Great Britain from several Ports of this Kingdom, from whence they could not formerly be exported. That this Act may have its full Effect for the Advantage of both Kingdoms, it will deserve your most serious Consideration, what Methods will be most likely to prevent the clandestine and illegal Exportation of those Commodities to foreign Parts; which must in the End prove detrimental both to Great Britain and Ireland, whose true Interests are inseparable.

I am likewise to acquaint you, that his Majesty observes with much Satisfaction the Increase of your Linnen and Hempen Manufactures; and to assure you, that you may depend upon his Royal Favour and Protection, in the improving and extending to the utmost, a Trade so beneficial to this Nation.

I hope it is unnecessary for me to give you further Assurances of my Readiness to concur with you in every thing that may conduce to the publick Good.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return our most hearty Thanks to your Grace, for your excellent Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houses of Parliament, and with the utmost Sincerity to congratulate your Grace on your Return to this Kingdom.

Your Grace's inviolable Attachment to his Majesty's Service, your Desire and Care to promote the Happiness of this Nation, and your known Prudence and Humanity, cannot fail to secure to us the Continuance of those Advantages, which we have already experienced from your mild and just Administration.

The tender and fatherly Concern which his Majesty hath shewn for the Interests of his People, and the Protection of their Trade and Commerce, must fill our Hearts with Affection and Gratitude, and will engage us to exert our most vigorous Endeavours in the Support of his Majesty's Government, and the Protestant Religion, against the Attacks of those who envy us the Prosperity which we enjoy under them. And we cannot, without the highest Satisfaction, observe that our Zeal in this Cause will the more effectually appear, by a strict Adherence to those Principles, by which your Grace, and your Family, have been so remarkably distinguished.

We perceive the good Effects of your Grace's Influence in having the Duties on our Woollen Yarn taken off, and the Opportunities of carrying our Woollen Manufactures into Great Britain enlarged. And we will, on our Part, take proper Methods to prevent all illegal Exportations, which are attended with Consequences prejudicial to the Trade of both Kingdoms.

These, and the many Instances, which we have felt, of his Majesty's Royal Bounty and Favour to us, in the extending the Trade of our Linnen and Hempen Manufactures, give us the greatest Reason to hope, that we shall become a flourishing and a happy Nation.

We want no other Assurance of your Grace's favourable Intentions to this Country, than what may be found in your Conduct towards us, which hath been to recommend only those Things to our Care, which it is manifestly both our Duty and our Interest to promote.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords,

I AM obliged to you for this very kind Address, and will continue my Endeavours to deserve your good Opinion, by my Zeal for his Majesty's Service, and the Prosperity of this Kingdom.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE his Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, return our humble Thanks for your Grace's excellent Speech from the Throne.

The Experience we have had of your Grace's just and mild Administration, gives us a full Assurance of all those Blessings, which a good and wise Governor can confer upon a loyal and grateful People, and makes us consider your Grace's Return a singular Happiness to this Kingdom.

The Measures at this Time pursued by his Majesty for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce abroad, are a further Proof of his Majesty's Attention to the Welfare of his Subjects; and, under your Grace's Influence, and from the Example of your noble Ancestors, we shall endeavour to distinguish ourselves by our Zeal for the Protestant Religion, and for the Honour and Support of his Majesty and his Government.

We shall, with the greatest Cheerfulness, concur in granting to his Majesty the usual Supplies, being well assured of your Grace's prudent Care in applying them to the Purposes for which they shall be given.

We shall always most gratefully acknowledge his Majesty's Goodness in the Assurance he has been pleased to give us of his Protection in our Trade and Manufactures, and shall ever look upon this Instance of his Majesty's Favour as a new Proof of your Grace's kind and just Representation of the State of this Kingdom. And as we shall always make the Publick Happiness the great Aim of our Consultations; so we have no Doubt but your Grace will most readily concur with us in every thing that may conduce to so desirable an End.

Isaac Ambrose,

and

Burdett Worthington,

Cl' Parl' Dom' Com'

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I WILL use my best Endeavours to preserve the Esteem you express for me in this very obliging Address, for which I return you my Thanks.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbucic Humours, tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, and ever so many Years standing, and that without any sensible Medication or the least Purging, which by an unaccountable Mixture is generally advised, although always found rather to increase and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DRUGS:

WHICH, without the least Trouble,

Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do restore the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbucic Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blisters, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, swelling of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Disorders.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passage (wherein proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also assuredly and immediately cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and stultent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Person pleasantly Lightfoot, brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and as good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much famed and pleasant Chymical Drops have is universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbucic Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; the careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Goddowson's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the City of London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
